

Rekai Central Hospital - Donor Recognition Plaques

Location	Toronto, Ontario
Designer / Architect	Gino Palladini
Duration	Mar 1990 - Apr 1990

Scope - Soheil Mosun Limited was contracted to manufacture a one-of-a-kind donor wall consisting of (4) exquisite works of art. Each representing the four corners of the world.

Highlights - The animals are handcrafted solid bronze with etched and paint infilled details. Each are individually mounted onto beautifully decorated solid bronze panels. The panels are also made of solid bronze, etched and paint infilled. Frames are etched patinaed with matching decorative corners.

Close-up of owl showing etched and infill detail

Canadian goose handcrafted of solid bronze, etched and infilled

Etched and patinaed donor plaques

One-of-a-kind original works of art

Close-up of decorative patinaed frame corners

Close-up of handcrafted detail